Dedicated To

Pat Oliver

In Memory of

Loren Horten

Although Pat Oliver was here only for a year, she quickly established herself in our hearts. Her undying devotion and untiring spirit caused us to adore her. When she moved away we lost not only a good teacher but a great friend.

Loren Horten was far from just a football coach and teacher. He was a friend to all. His fairness on the field and in the classroom found its way into our hearts. Where he left this world for a better one it left a gap in our hearts.

Because of their unconquerable spirit and tireless devotion we, the Graduating Class of 1970, produce this Annual in dedication to and memory of Pat Oliver and Loren Horten.

You will remember and forget many things. May you remember more than you forget.

Best wishes

Gossiping again!

This is study hall?

Someone's gonna tell!

Boy, that's giving me a headache.

Bobsey Twins

Excedrin Headache #290.

Stop the game. I lost my contact.

Cheetah!

Empty, as usual!

Ho, Hum; this loafing is hard work!

Ring my chimes!

She's gotcha now!

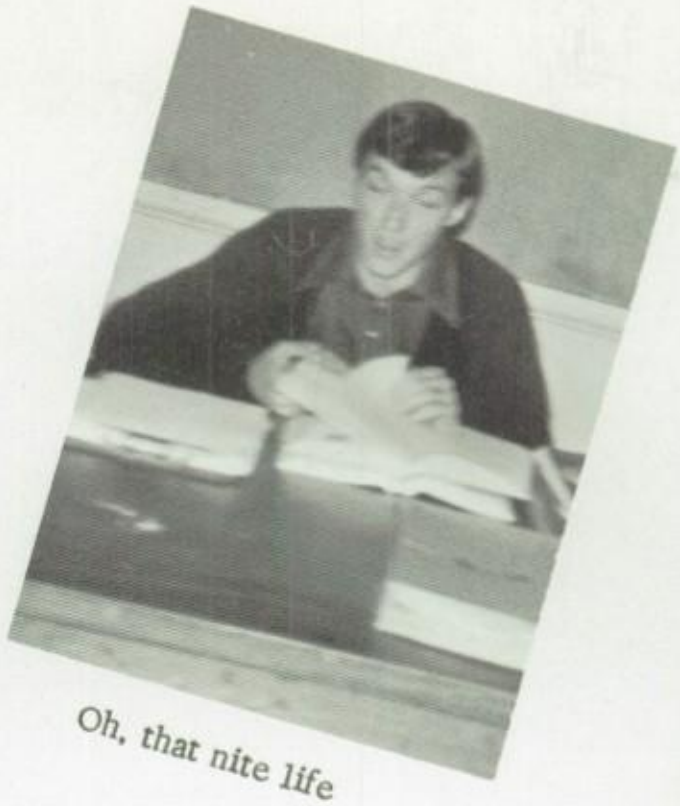
We've got to stop meeting this way.

Watch it. Here comes Gail.

What the Sam Hill?

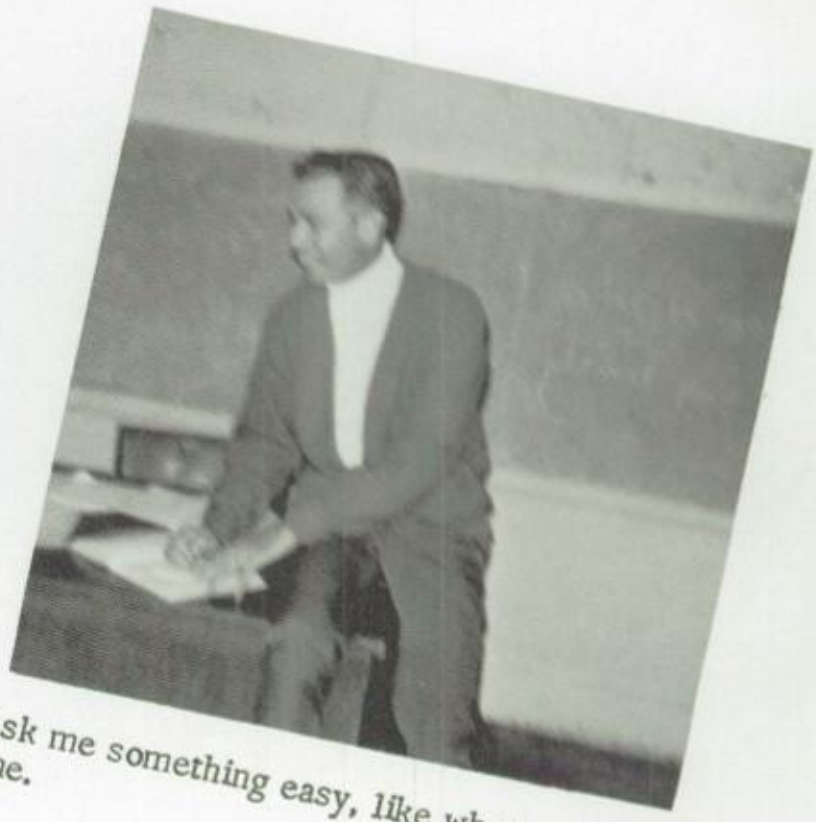
You're supposed to be practicing the play.

Then he took me in his arms and...



Oh, that nite life

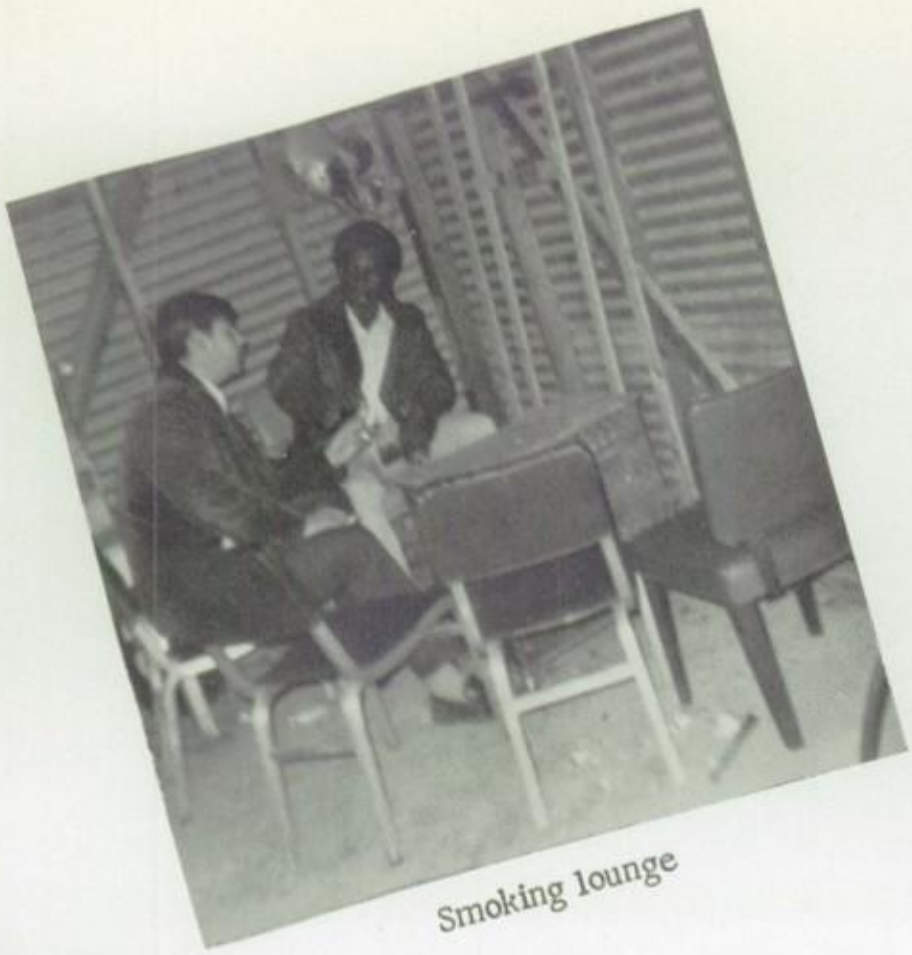
No, you can't use salt for sugar because it looks alike!



Ask me something easy, like what's one and one.

I'll put a spell on you.

The Cannonball Express



Smoking lounge

Three Stooges

That's far enough

He looks worse upside down!

Watch that one in the middle!

Would-be graduates

Missed a spot in the corner!

There goes next year's basketball team!

Soup's on.

Death Row!

Would you believe he's just a freshman?
